

Don't Pretend / Nicos Ziogalas

(lyrics: N.Ziogalas)

*One drink and then another, a tequila once again,
pour me an ouzo,
tonight I want you to smile at me, I want you to smile at me.*

*I want you to stomp your feet right on the beat, tonight I'm giving my soul just to see you let loose,
just to see you let loose.*

*How much I love that laughter, how beautiful you become,
make this moment your own, don't pretend.*

I know you're going through hard days, feeling cornered from all sides, it seems like a miracle how, right in front of me you are transforming, you are transforming.

*How much I love that laughter,
how beautiful you become,
make this moment your own,
don't pretend, don't pretend.*
